1. Purpose and Scope

The purpose of this Community Investment Policy (“the Policy”) is to set out the principles to be adopted in developing community investment initiatives. Opet recognizes the impact of its activities on its stakeholders, the environment, and the community at large and emphasizes the importance of sustainable development.

This Policy, which is an integral part of the Opet Code of Ethics¹, is developed to demonstrate Opet’s commitment to making a positive impact on the welfare and sustainable development of the communities and the environment with which it engages as a corporate citizen.

Opet is committed to conducting its business in accordance with the highest ethical standards. Koç Holding A.Ş., as a signatory to the UN Global Compact, adheres to the 10 Principles of the UN Global Compact, and Opet also observes compliance with these Principles in line with this approach.

This Policy reflects Opet’s sustainability approach and has been prepared in accordance with the Code of Ethics and Values of Opet’s Principal Shareholders.

2. Definitions

“Community Investment” means strategic involvement in, and partnership with organizations or individuals, to address a range of social and environmental issues defined by the company to contribute to its long-term corporate interests and to enhance its reputation.

“Opet” means all companies controlled solely or jointly by Opet Petrolcülük A.Ş. and Opet Petrolcülük A.Ş., either directly or indirectly by holding 50% or more than 50% of their shares.

“Principal Shareholders” refers to Türkiye Petrol Rafinerileri A.Ş. and Öztürk Yatırım ve Turizm A.Ş.

“The Sustainable Development Goals” are the 17 Goals adopted by all UN Member States in 2015, as part of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development which set out a 15-year plan to achieve the Goals, addressing global challenges including those related to poverty, inequality, climate, environmental degradation, prosperity, and peace and justice.²

“The UN” means the United Nations.

“The UN Global Compact”³ is a global pact initiated by the United Nations, to encourage businesses worldwide to adopt sustainable and socially responsible policies, and to report on their implementation. The UN Global Compact is a principle-based framework for businesses, stating ten principles in the areas of human rights, labour, the environment and anti-corruption.

3. General Principles

Opet conducts “Due Diligence”⁴ on organizations or individuals that are supported by Opet, to ensure that Community Investments are made by the reliable parties with sound purposes.

Opet ensures that Community Investments, including those with organizations or individuals, comply with the Opet Code of Ethics, Human Rights Policy, Donations and Sponsorship Policy, Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and other relevant policies.

When applying for membership in regional, national, or international organizations or signing agreements related to Community Investments, it is necessary to ensure compliance with the principles of the UN Global Compact as it may affect the reputation of Opet.

4. Application of the Policy

Community Investments are carried out by making use of the Koç Group Sustainability Guide⁵, and by taking into consideration the conditions specified below:

- Whether the relevant Community Investment is compatible with the priorities and needs of the regions where business activities are carried out,
- Establishing a clear link between Community Investment activities and business strategy,
- Establish strong partnerships with civil society organizations, international organizations, universities or individuals to propose applicable solutions,
- Ensure that the objectives and results of the Community Investments are measurable and scalable by design, and that the results have the potential to be disseminated to other companies and regions, and
- Ensure that they are aligned with the social and environmental objectives outlined in the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

5. Authority and Responsibilities

This Policy is intended to provide guidance to all Opet employees and managers in developing community investment initiatives.
